

KAMS AND SAINTS WON YESTERDAY

A Slow Game and a Tolerably
Fast One Make a Poor
Average.

The first of yesterday's baseball games was about the worst of the season. The second, though the score would not indicate it, was for the most part, fast ball, and the excitement and enthusiasm at times made it exhilarating.

The Kamehamehas defeated the Punahous in the first game 11 to 5, and they haven't a great deal to brag of, at that. They got eight runs in the second innings by one of those combinations of hard hitting on their part, and of errors and difficulties experienced on the part of the Punahous, which seem sometimes as though Fortune was trying to show how capricious she could be. Eleven hits, of which five were in that fateful second inning when it looked as though the Punahous never would be able to retire the side, account in large measure for the score. After that tidal wave, the Kamehamehas got one run in each of the sixth, seventh and eighth innings. The Punahous got one run in the first, another in the second, and two in the fourth and one in the eighth. They got three hits. But the game was awfully slow and uninteresting. There was a burst of excitement in the eighth when Vannatta sent the ball into deep center, almost to the fence, far over center field's head, and scored a home run.

The second game was fast, and in spite of the inequality of the score and the fact that the Diamond Heads were shut out, it was a pretty good game. The St. Louis team was in something more like its normal form. It played with the spirit of determination to win. The Diamond Heads, on the other hand, were not quite up to their mark. Ten hits made off their pitchers is pretty heavy odds.

FIRST GAME.

The Punahous started in handicapped. Lyman is in Hilo. John Williams had just got back from there and hadn't got rid of his sea legs, and so was in no condition to go behind the bat. There was no one else on hand to take the position, McCriston not having arrived. Harry Wilder, though he had not caught a ball for three years, volunteered to lead the team, and he didn't lose the game for the team either. He caught for two innings and then went to first and Winne went behind the bat. Winne has good baseball material in him. He needs to be a little quicker, but he is a willing performer, and showed good judgment in one or two exciting times. Hampton the pitcher was not up to his usual standard.

The game started with the Punahous at the bat. Hampton went out at first. Eddie Desha made a two base hit, got third when his brother John batted away out into the outfield, and scored on a passed ball. Kia got to third on the same passed ball. John Desha was caught out by right field, and Albert Williams went out to center field.

For the Kams Hamauku, Lemon and Vannatta went out. Miller in between, getting to first but no farther.

In the second David Desha made a run on a hit and a failure of Vannatta to field with his usual precision, and by taking a chance, when Hampton made what was intended for a sacrifice hit, but which he turned into a one base hit by a clever slide at first.

Then came the Punahous' Waterloo of the second inning. Lota made a single over first, and to second and third when Kuhina batted a long fly which Kia took in by a backward run and a beautiful catch that won him much applause and scored on Plunkett's hit to right. Plunkett scored on Kamaopili's bunt, said to have been the prettiest bunt of the season. Reuter scored. Kamaopili scored. Hamauku and Lemon scored on Vannatta's long hit to center. Vannatta came in on Lota's long hit to left after Miller had gone out catcher to first. Lota served for a second time in this inning, on a single, a wild pitch and Kuhina's fly to left that Eddie Desha failed to catch. Then Plunkett went out at first.

"A batting-fest."
"Everybody hits."
"Did we really get them out?"
Such were some of the expressions wrung from the fans.

Some thought the pitcher had gone wrong. Others thought it was either the act of God or the public enemy. Anyway the Punahous never recovered from the blow.

Nobody did anything in the third except that Kamaopili tried to make a bunt and hit an infield fly instead and was out on that and for interfering with a dealer, the dealer being Harry Wilder who was at first at this time.

In the first of the fourth the Punahous made two runs without a hit. Winne and D. Desha making the runs, Hampton sacrificing to bring Desha in. In the fifth there was nothing doing. In the sixth Lemon, after getting his base on balls, stole second, and got to third and scored on Winne's overthrow to third.

In the seventh Kuhina scored on his own hit to left field and Reuter's long one to center. In the eighth Kia got his base on balls, stole second and got home on a passed ball. Vannatta in this inning made a pretty double play, fielding the ball hit by A. Williams near second base putting out Wilder who was forced off first and throwing to first in time to catch Williams.

In the second half of the eighth, Vannatta made his home run. He batted the ball over center field's head, right field fielding it and throwing it home but not in time to head off Vannatta.

There was nothing more. The game finally dragged itself out.

SECOND GAME.

The second game was won by the St. Louis, doing a little better playing all around than the Diamond Heads and considerably better at pitcher's position and in batting. Leslie gave place to W. Chillingworth toward the last of the game. A stronger line of batters ran up the score. But it was fast ball all the way through. There was nothing in the first three innings, nor in the fourth except that Soper at third made a pick-up that was cheered and got the ball to first and headed off Lo On.

In the fifth the Saints made two runs. Soares got his base on balls, second and third on too low a throw from catcher to second base, and scored on Evers' long fly. Busnell scored also and had the unhappy experience of being hit twice with the ball in the back, once by the catcher in throwing to third, and the second time by shortstop throwing to the home plate.

The Diamond Heads in this inning would have scored if Soper had slid home instead of trying to make it running. This half of the inning was full of excitement and the grandstand was in an ecstasy.

The sixth was featureless. In the seventh Busnell and Louis scored, though Sam Chillingworth ought to have caught Busnell's long fly and W. Chillingworth ought to have fielded Lo On's drive to first. The Diamond Heads in the seventh again created excitement and aroused cheers and hopes. But Jonah in a very promising career was caught out at third, Soper at first while trying to steal second, and W. Chillingworth struck out.

In the eighth the Saints piled up three more runs. J. Fernandez started off with a good object lesson in base running. He batted a grounder off to shortstop, but he ran just as if he thought he had a chance to get to first—and he did. He beat the ball to first.

He scored on Williams' bunt and a wild throw to third, which got Williams to second. Williams got to third on Busnell's batting and scored on Evers' three-bagger. Evers scoring on Louis' hit. The Diamond Heads went out in one, two, three, order.

In the ninth the Saints had three men on bases, Gleason, Fernandez and William Williams, when Soares, Busnell and Evers went out in succession though Gleason and Fernandez scored.

Davis, Sam Chillingworth and Leslie went out one after the other and the game, which had been won long before, was ended.

The full score is as follows:

NOTES.

Harry Wilder was much complimented for his gameness and spirit of true sport, in going into the game with the Punahous in order that there might be no delay. He made good, too.

GOLF BOXING SPORTS FOOTBALL TENNIS

LEAVES FROM A BASEBALL PRIMER—THE OUTCAST.

This is a very pathetic picture, is it not? Yes, very pathetic. Someone has been bold enough to remark that there is something sad about all of the baseball primer pictures. But this is a different sort of sadness.

This boy is an outcast. Because he did not have the price of a ticket, and could not devise a plan to get through the gates, he is compelled to watch the game through a knothole in the fence. He is patiently waiting for one of the players to knock a foul over the fence, and when this happens he will pick up the ball and hold it as ransom until he is allowed to place himself on the bleachers.

Managers of ball teams and others interested in the financial end of the game do not seem to realize that there is a certain class of small boys who always see the games without separating themselves from the coin of the realm. If anyone should put his hand over the knothole you happen to be looking through and shut off your view burn him with your cigarette if you smoke—and the boy at the knot hole usually does. If the offender should place his back against the opening drive a pin carefully into his anatomy and wait for results.

KALANIANA'OLE IS NAME OF LEAGUE

Winter Series to Be Played at Aala Park by Teams of All Nations.

The Aala Baseball League held a meeting last Friday evening at which the by-laws of the league were approved and final arrangements for the playing of the first game were completed.

Those present at the meeting were M. Gomes, representing the Kaala A. C.; Perkins, the Kamanuwa; J. Asing and W. Tin Chong, the Chinese Alohas; En Yet, the Chinese A. C.; J. Nacmen-to, the Twilights and K. Yasumori the Japanese A. C.

The meeting was presided over by A. K. Vierra, the president of the league. The regular secretary, M. Guerra, being absent, Tin Chong was selected to act in the place. The most important business of the evening was the changing of name from Aala League to Kalaniana'ole Baseball League, as an honor to the Delegate to Congress. It is said that the league will try to get Prince Olopa to throw the first ball over the plate. The first game will be played in the first part of August.

Kia, at center field for the Punahous, did some good work that was none the less brilliant because it did not help win a victory.

Kamaopili is credited with making the prettiest bunt of the season. It was in the second half of the second inning.

Vannatta set the example and roused his team to something like effort, at times.

Winne, who caught for the Punahous most of the game, shows that he is a willing performer, and gives promise of making a player to be proud of.

Sam Chillingworth missed some chances in right field that he ought not to have missed.

Lota at third base did some splendid work yesterday.

YACHTS RACE AT PEARL HARBOR

Small Boats Will Contest for Cooper Cup on the Short Course.

The chief feature of today's sports will be the yacht racing at Pearl Harbor. The race for the Cooper cup is the real event of the day and the smaller yachts will all compete. Most of them left for the Peninsula yesterday afternoon and the clubhouse was well filled last night. There is also to be a race over the Pearl Harbor course for the larger yachts and all of the larger boats will be on hand. This race was arranged at the special request of the yacht owners who enjoyed the trip around the island to such an extent that they wish more sport of the same kind.

The race today seems to be between the Princess, the Myrtle and the Malolo, though all the other boats have a chance through their handicaps and the chip is an unknown quantity, as it is her maiden race. From the looks of things last night there should be strong trade winds and in the race for the larger yachts the Helene should have a chance to get even for the race for the Governor's cup, in which she was handicapped by the loss of her topmast placed in position and has had an outigger made which should prevent all such accidents in the future. With the smooth sea and a good wind the Helene can travel, which she will certainly have to do against the Kamehameha and the Gladys.

WHITE ROCK GOLF PLAY

The seventeenth White Rock tournament will take place at the Moanalua golf links on Sunday, July 14. The results will be watched with a great deal of interest, on account of the fact that different men have won each time that the tournament has been played and no one has been able to get a second leg on the cup. The entries will close Friday noon at E. O. Hall & Son.

THE MYRTLE, A FAVORITE FOR THE COOPER CUP TODAY.

AUTO TRIP TO HALEIWA HOTEL

Good Reliability Contest Is Expected on Next Sunday.

One week from today the reliability contest between the motor cars on this island will take place, the run being from this city to Haleiwa Hotel. The cars will leave the grounds of the Executive building at 11 o'clock in the morning, being started three minutes apart. On the return they will leave Haleiwa at 4 p. m. with the same time between each machine.

The entries for this event, the first of the kind ever attempted in the Territory, will be closed at the rooms of the Promotion Committee on July 10, and are open to all, whether members of the local automobile club or not. The rules have already been published in full in the Advertiser. The committee in charge of the contest consists of J. D. Kennedy, S. R. Jordan and W. R. Brinkerhoff.

Sixteen entries have been made already for the contest and it is hoped that there will be many more. It is expected that a large percentage of the 140 cars in the city will take part in what looks like a good exhibition of the worth of the local machines.

GOOD BALL AT AALA PARK

The last games of the first series of the Riverside League will close today with games between the Chinese Aloha Club and the Palama A. C., and the Kaala A. C. vs. the Chinese Athletic Club.

The first game, commencing at 1:30 p. m., will be between the Chinese Aloha and the Palama A. C. These were the two teams of the Riverside League that broke the records of the Hawaiian Islands for number of innings played in a baseball game in their last meeting by playing seventeen innings. There is no doubt of a good game today, as the Alohas will do their utmost to beat the natives, so as to be the leaders of the first series.

In the second game between the Kaala A. C. and the Chinese Athletic, beginning at 3:30 p. m., a good game is also expected. The Kaalas are playing good ball and so is the Chinese Athletic team. The winner of this game will have to meet the Chinese Alohas to decide the championship of the first series and it will certainly be a closely contested game.

It is thought that the Kaalas will have the advantage over the Chinese ball players, because the latter arrived from Hilo yesterday and those who have not been used to a sea voyage, will not yet be over with seasickness. However, the Chinese Athletic will be hard for the Kaalas to beat.

The Chinese Aloha Club will hold their monthly meeting tonight at 7 o'clock in the clubhouse on Dowsett lane. All members are earnestly requested to attend this meeting.

PLAY CRICKET ON SATURDAY

The Honolulu Cricket Club has challenged the cricket 'crew' of the Cable-ship Restorer to play a match game next Saturday at the Makiki grounds.

In the last contest between these two teams the sailors defeated the landmen by one wicket and 56 runs, and the latter wish to retrieve themselves. The Restorer has a strong team and they have shown up well in every contest in which they have taken part so the challenge received was quickly taken up by Capt. Broadfoot and his players.

The cables team will line up as follows: Capt. Combe, C. Rowell, F. H. Lander, J. W. Laker, W. Wright, G. Whalley, J. Broadfoot, J. Robb, G. Thompson, J. Johnson and H. Pragnell.

The St. Louis team was in something like its old form and gave a check to the tide of Diamond Head victory.

There was something of the old-time spirit of the rooters during the second game yesterday.

CHINESE BEAT HILO BALL TEAM

Sport of All Kinds at Fourth of July Meet on Hawaii.

HILO, July 5.—With perfect weather and good sports of every possible variety, the people of Hilo and her visitors, to the number of three thousand enjoyed every minute of the Fourth Day of July, 1907. Following were the results of the principal events:

FOOTBALL.

Honolulu. 2 goals
Hilo. 0 goals

BASEBALL.

C. A. C. 123456789
Hilos. 040300000-7
Hilos. 000100110-3

Merchants' Stake, $1000. 11-4 mile. 1 Lazell, John O'Rourke; 2 Bruner, L. Petrie; 3 Racine Murphy, Chas. David. Time 2:18.

Half mile, $100. 1 Fidia, J. T. Moir; 2 Amoureux, Kealla Stables; 3 Racine Murphy, Chas. David.

11-2 Mile, $150 and Primo cup. 1 Fidia, J. T. Moir; 2 Lazell, John O'Rourke; 3 Bruner, L. Petrie.

One mile, Hawaiian bred, $100. 1 Major Collier, C. E. Wright; 2 Indigo, L. Petrie; 3 Hawaiian Girl, S. Masul. Time 1:47.

In the football game the Oahus outclassed the Hawaiis from start to finish. There was considerable delay at the start and an accident to J. Jamie, of the Hawaiis, added to the delay. Jamie was knocked insensible from a blow on the jaw, and after being stretched motionless on the grass for fully twenty minutes he was taken home in Dr. Wall's automobile, recovering enough to return to the field later in the afternoon. The teams were as follows:

Hawaii—Goal, Desha; backs, Kellner, Lindsay; half backs, Fraser, Rattay, Laoicoke; forwards, Wilkie, Jamie, Irvine, Chalmers, Donald.

Oahu—Goal, Dixon; backs, J. Clark, Hickman; half backs, Anderson, Mayall, Davis; forwards, Catterall, Fernandez, Williams, Kea and Bailey.

When the two ball teams were ready to begin their inter-island game it was found that the C. A. C.'s intended to play Williams as pitcher, instead of John Lo. The Hawaiis strenuously objected and a long and angry discussion followed, the C. A. C.'s declining to play without Williams until it was shown them that the arrangement had been to play a full team of Chinese boys. Thereupon they took the field after declaring all bets off, for which they were later mighty sorry as they won the game by 7 to 4. The greatest excitement entered into every play on both sides because, in a test game two days earlier the C. A. C.'s had beaten a Hilo team by 9 to 4.

The C. A. C. started scoring in the second, the board showing 4 runs for the inning, to which they added 3 more in the fourth. Then they gave some loose play, rallying at the end of the game and stopping the Hawaiis from adding to their little total when they had begun to catch on to John Lo's curves. Following was the lineup:

Hilos
Honolulu

Che Bul. .... John Bird
John Lo. .... Morehead
Lo On. .... J. D. Easton
C. Akina. .... Oliver Akau
En Sue. .... Black Lyman
Shing Chai. .... Solomon
Wm. Ayau. .... T. Tevis
Mon Yim. .... Geo. Desha

Substitutes—Hilos: Swanson, Spalding and J. Todd. Honolulu: Ching Yet, Eddie Ayau, En Sang and Ah Kong.

It was decided to give a $50 cup to the winning team instead of the coin, as the players did not care to be placed in the professional class.

As a rule the horse races were close, the first event, the luna race, closing with an exciting finish between Ola Bill (1), and Sweet Nell (2). In the half-mile, Hawaiian bred, Easterday landed an easy winner though Indigo and Good Luck were close behind at the finish. Till the last turn a blanket would have covered the three horses.

Of course, the Merchants' thousand dollar stake was the big event though the unknown Lazell was the favorite and deservedly so for he landed an easy winner in 2:18.

The Japs, after six false starts and plenty of bucking, afforded fun in their half-mile when Jim Barney and Janie landed in the order named, Hawaiian Girl being far behind.

The gentlemen's riding race, one mile, Volcano Stables Cup, landed Ola Bill a winner for the second time, with Lei and Honeysuckle following in the order named.

In the sixth event, half mile, free for all, $100, it was thought that Col. Spalding's Kealla Stables, which had landed third in the second race, would pass the stand first with only ninety pounds up. But John T. Moir's Onomes bay gelding, Fidia, was too much for the Amoureux from Kauai, the Scotch plaid colors catching the judges' eyes about a length in front of the well known purple and yellow of the Garden Isle.

Easterday scored a second victory in the three-quarter mile Hawaiian bred, the Kealla Stables bay mare Amica being second. Indigo and Major Collier were left at the post.

In the ninth, 11-2 mile, free for all, the race was between Fidia and Lazell, the Scotch plaid colors of John T. Moir landing the Primo cup and $150. Mr. Moir was so pleased with his gelding's success that a couple of bottles of cold were taken across the track to the judges' stand, much to the disgust of the dry in the grand.

The day closed with another race for the Hawaiian breds, one mile, purse $100. This went to Major Collier with Indigo and Hawaiian Girl second and third.

Owing to a couple of showers that fell early in the morning, the track was a little heavy at the start. But the day was perfect with Hilo's Italian clear blue sky, the heat being tempered by first enough cool breeze to bring the mercury down to 72. Every inch of the race can be seen from the grandstand and beyond are the bay, the ocean and the brilliant green covered slopes of the Hamakua coast.
